Date of event: 29 July 2025

No. of Participants: 45

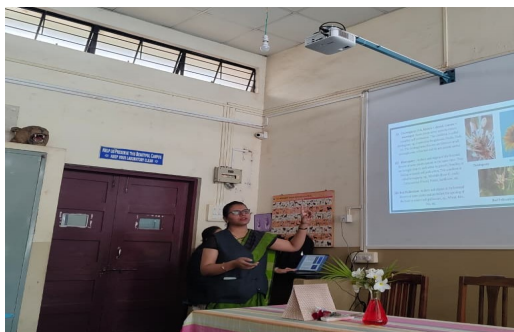

Organized by: Department of Zoology

Venue: Department of Zoology , Govindram Seksaria Science College (Autonomous), Belagavi

Highlights of the Programme:

As part of the Staff Exchange Program under the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between Govindram Seksaria Science College (Autonomous), Club Road, Belagavi – 590001 and D. M. S. Mandal's Bhaurao Kakatkar Arts, Science and Commerce College, College Road, Belagavi – 590001, a guest lecture was organized on 29th July 2025. The session was delivered by Mrs. Mayura Nibhande, Head, Department of Zoology, Bhaurao Kakatkar College. She presented an insightful lecture on "Awareness about Pollinators". The talk emphasized the essential role of pollinators in sustaining ecosystems, supporting agriculture, and maintaining biodiversity. It also highlighted threats faced by pollinator species and the need for conservation efforts. Students from B.Sc. I and III Year (Zoology) actively participated in the session. The interactive format of the lecture encouraged students to engage in discussions and broaden their understanding of the topic beyond the classroom. The event marked a fruitful academic collaboration and knowledge-sharing platform between the two institutions.
